- Waive eligibility provision for initial enrollment (if your employee does not enroll when eligible, he or she may be considered a late entrant and subject to a waiting period of up to 12 months.)

New or Existing Group Check desired eligibility provision below

- Please check this box if you would like to have a 1-month orientation period prior to the beginning of the employee waiting period. If you would like this option, please check this box in addition to one of the eligibility provisions listed below.

The orientation period is measured by adding one calendar month and subtracting one calendar month from the employee's date of hire. Here are some examples:

- If an employee is hired on June 5th, the employee's orientation period will end on July 4th, and the employee's waiting period will begin on July 5th.
- If an employee is hired on October 1st, the employee's orientation period will end on October 31st, and the employee's waiting period will begin on November 1st.

Please note that a 1-month orientation period could result in the employer group being responsible for an Employer Shared Responsibility payment under IRS Code § 4980. Under IRS Code § 4980, certain large employers could be subject to penalty if they fail to give full-time employees the opportunity to enroll in coverage by the first day of the fourth month of employment.
